Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) volunteers are much more than mentors. They are sworn officers of the court, appointed by a juvenile court judge to advocate one-on-one for children or youth who are the victims of abuse and neglect and in the foster care system. Through their advocacy efforts, CASA volunteers provide hope, increased opportunity, and a better life for children and youth in the court's care; helping to end the cycle of abuse and neglect, thereby making a difference for generations to come. Flexible Hours – 2-year minimum commitment and 15-20 hours/average each month. To learn more, visit our website at www.cccocasa.org and call to sign-up for one of our upcoming Informational Sessions. We currently have over 80 children and youth on our wait list who are waiting for a volunteer advocate

In 2012 Oakland Rotary Club (ORC) 'adopted' all eleven TK classrooms (all 25 in 2013) and committed to provide money, books, toys, field trips and classroom volunteers.

Classroom volunteers are greatly helpful to teachers and students and allow significant enhancement of the instructional program. Reading to students, helping in structured play areas, doing special projects, providing individualized teaching and just being a second adult in the room improves classroom functioning. Several Rotarians volunteer regularly and the Club promotes classroom volunteerism among our relatives, friends and professional contacts. Flexible, we ask a minimum of two hours a month. Rotary members must obtain both Rotary International and OUSD clearances. Non-Rotarians are tracked through Be a Mentor.

ADULT VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Celebrating 31 years in the park, it's always a pleasure to see a play at Orinda Starlight in the tree-lined outdoor theater. A volunteer run and staffed organization with actors and crew who know what they're doing makes being a volunteer both enjoyable and instructive. Volunteers needed to act, build sets, manage concessions, create costumes, and perform maintenance. Volunteers especially needed during April and October.

ADULT VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

The goal of OTSCF is to educate Orinda on the culture of the Czech Republic and especially Tabor, a city founded in 400 BCE. Every fall a student from Tabor is invited to live with an Orinda family and spend a semester at Miramonte High School. The group also encourages and advises Orindans who wish to travel in the Czech Republic. Meetings are held fourth Thursday of the month at the Oak Room in the Orinda Library, 26 Orinda Way, Orinda, CA 94563 at 7:00 pm. New members welcome.

ADULT VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Rescue One is the first citizen-inspired foundation in the State of California working entirely in support of its local fire district and paramedic program. The Moraga-Orinda Fire District's paramedic service is available to residents anywhere in these two communities. Over the years the MOFD has answered thousands of calls from victims of heart attacks, accidents, and sudden illness. With financial help from Rescue One Foundation, MOFD paramedic units have communication links with local hospital emergency rooms and can provide critical information for cardiac patients.
